II. Listen to the passage and tell whether the following statements are true or false.

We drink tea every day. But more than three hundred years ago, most of the or people in Europe did not know anything about tea. Some people heard about it, but very few of them know what to do with it.

There is a story about an English sailor who went to countries in the east, the west and the south. He went to India and China. One day he came home and brought some tea as a present for his mother. She told her friends about the present and asked them to a “tea party”. When her friends came to the “tea party”, the old woman offered them brown tea-leaves. The old woman’s friends began to eat them. Of course, nobody liked the tea-leaves.

At that time the sailor came in. He looked at the table and said, "Mother, what have you done with the tea?"

“I boiled it, as you said.”

“And what did you do with the water?”

“I threw it away, of course,” answered the old woman.

“Now you may throw away the leaves, too,” said her son.

Dear Tom,

How are you? I’m in a new school this term in China. And I’m writing to you in my school now. My new school is big and nice. There are one thousand and four hundred students and one hundred and forty teachers in my school. I like the teachers. They are very kind to me. My classmates are very friendly, too. They teach me Chinese and I teach them French.

There are trees, flowers and green grass in my school. They are very beautiful. Behind my school there is a small river. The water in it is quite clean. We can swim in it.

We have no classes on Saturdays or Sundays. Sometimes I go to play football or basketball with my classmates. Sometimes I stay at home and watch TV. Sometimes I go to shops with my father and mother. We all like China.

Please write to me soon!

Yours,

Eric

Do you learn from your mistakes? I hope so. But have you ever made the same mistake twice? I have. Sometimes I make the same mistake three or four times!

Sometimes, good things happen because of mistakes. Once I got on the wrong train. That was a big mistake. But on that train, I saw a good friend. I was so happy I made that mistake!

Another time I destroyed a surprise. My mother planned a surprise party for my father. She told me it was a secret. But I was just a little boy and I couldn't keep the secret. I told my father about the party. At first, my mother was mad at me. But then my father said he was happy he knew about it. He said he didn't like surprises.

III. Listen to the passage and complete the sentences.

I'm David Smith. I work in this university library, and today I'd like to tell you something about our library and show you how to use it. In the first room on our visit, you can find all kinds of dictionaries, guides and even telephone books. You may use these books only in this room itself.

OK, let's go to the next room. It's a reading room. Different kinds of newspapers and magazines are kept here. You can always get them by yourselves. But they mustn't be taken out of this room.

Now, we are in the third room. In this room you can borrow novels, storybooks and science books. All the library's books are listed here by title, by writer and by topic. When you are looking for a book, you must write the books call number, title and writer on these pieces of paper and give them to the person who works here together with your library card. You must return the book in two weeks.

OK, that's all. If you have any further questions about using the library, I'd be glad to help you. Thank you.
